

CAMERON PARTNERS PEOPLE ARE MOVING UP

Cameron Partners, New Zealand's leading independent investment bank, has made Chris Simcock a partner and Toby King has been appointed a Director.

Mr Simcock joined Cameron Partners in 2004 where he has since successfully implemented transactions for clients including Zespri Group Limited, DB Capital Partners and Rayonier New Zealand Limited. Previously he spent six years with Deloitte, most recently as a Director in Deloitte Corporate Finance in Auckland and prior to that in the Deloitte Private Equity Group in Hong Kong.

Mr King has been with Cameron Partners since August 2005 and has advised on the amalgamation of Wakefield Health and Royston Hospital, the sale of Dux Industries and the proposed merger between Contact Energy and Origin Energy. Mr King previously worked in Hong Kong with investment bank Jardine Fleming Securities and Grant Thornton Corporate Finance..

Partner Rob Cameron said, "Both Chris and Toby have a wealth of experience in advising both public and private companies and private equity funds, across a range of sectors, which is invaluable to Cameron Partners and our clients."

Mr Simcock said he was pleased to become a partner at one of New Zealand's most experienced and respected investment banking teams. "Cameron Partners has an enviable position in the New Zealand market which I am proud to be a part of."

On completion of his MA at Victoria University, Mr Simcock did a Post Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance and Investment from the Australian Securities Institute. Mr King holds a law degree and a Bachelor of Commerce from Otago University and an MBA from Insead, France.

Cameron Partners started the year by taking the number one spot for completed transactions in the Thomson Financial League Tables for the first quarter of 2006.
